COACHING CODE OF CONDUCT

Commitment

A coach's commitment is to improve the performance of the players and the team physically and mentally.

A player needs to participate in a high quality soccer program in a positive atmosphere.

Understand the WSA Philosophy

A coach must be thoroughly acquainted with FIFA Laws of the Game and they must keep attuned to the sound principles of coaching. A coach must be coherent with the WSA Model and coaching Philosophy, and work within the guidelines.

Respect

Coaches must respect all human beings i.e. players and officials. Opponents and officials must be treated with respect. Coaches of the WSA shall refrain from comments or behaviors, which are disrespectful, offensive, abusive, racist or sexist. In particular, behavior, which constitutes harassment, abuse or bullying, will not be tolerated

Players must be coached to win within the Laws of the Game.

Equipment

I know that I am required to wear the supplied apparel that the WSA provides when I am conducting WSA team practices and/or attending events as a representative of the WSA. There are no exceptions to this rule unless otherwise noted.

Enthusiasm

Coaches must be enthusiastic and positive. They must ensure that they are generous with their praise when deserved, but strict if necessary and should be able to create a player centered, fear-free atmosphere for work.

Personal Conduct

A coach must maintain the high standards of personal conduct and fair play. Coaches should never be involved in any circumstance which is offensive or suggests sexual connotations.

WSA coaches are not to engage in any unsanctioned activities outside the WSA without prior approval. Player participation in an unsanctioned activity by the WSA is not recommended. Coaches of the WSA shall conduct themselves at all time in a manner consistent with the values of WSA which include: fairness, integrity and mutual respect
